Needlemakers Newsletter

September 2020

Master's Blog

I wrote to you all on 17 September to tell you that the Installation of Master-elect, Philip Law, is to be deferred until 30th September 2021, leaving me to continue as your Master for the coming year. I hope this decision will allow Philip and Carol to plan for a full year of events without the current restrictions, which look set to continue for some months.

For me now comes the hard task of planning for this year's events and I shall let you have draft details in a couple of weeks. Until we are able to meet up again, I hope to continue with interactive online events as well as continuing to enjoy our regular Webinar programme and eNewsletters. I am very pleased to be able to introduce our latest eNewsletter following the successful Master's Briefing Webinar last week.

The Annual Service will take place on 1st October and we are looking forward to clothing 3 new liverymen in St James' Garlickhythe at the end of the Service. Details to follow shortly; the Service will be streamed to see on line.

Do join and visit our Facebook page.

But above all KEEP WELL.

Court Meeting

The Court met on September 16th. The following evening we had the Master's Briefing. Following the link will take you to a summary of these meetings. The Livery is delighted to welcome Zoe Morgan.

Magic and Wine

Not on the same evening but there may have been some overlap! The Master organised two very different events and as you will read, both thoroughly enjoyable.

Freedom of the Company

The Court was asked to consider, and it approved, a proposal from the Fellowship Committee to create a process for extending Livery Freedom to deserving Bursary and Prize Winners and Apprentices.

Breakfast taking place at 08:30 on Wednesday, 14th October over the internet, with the theme, "Love your Neighbour"; most appropriate for these unprecedented times.

The Rt. Hon. The Lord Mayor Alderman William Russell will give a bible reading and with many others I shall be joining in the Lord's Prayer.

If anyone wishes to join in prayers for the City, please follow the link below to register.
