MAY 2020

Master's Blog

Here we are in May and we now have a new eNewsletter.

We continue to receive lovely messages and here are two: a note from our Bursary Student at the City of London School for Girls, Sharwa Molla and a grateful letter from John Orchard, Chief Executive of Cavell Nurses Trust for our donation to their welfare funds.

We now have had two excellent webinars - Dr Ellie Cannon and more recently Dr Greg Walker. We look forward to our third on Wednesday 20 May (17.00) when we will hear from former Lord Mayor Sir Charles Bowman on 'Where next for the Livery'.

I have written a precis of our recent Court meeting and it is now on the website - please see the link below.

Do visit our Facebook page.

But above all KEEP WELL.

Summary of Court Meeting 28th April 2020

Second WCN Webinar

Dr Greg Walker is leader and governor in the UK higher education sector, as Chief Executive of MillionPlus, which is a leading UK higher education mission group representing modern universities across England and Scotland, and as a governor of the largest UK university, the Open University.

Our Beadle's Role

John Oakley our Beadle has kindly documented his changing role through the ages, and how it transitioned to the role he now plays (fortunately for us) and his views on how it may change again in the future - and the Coronavirus has shown us just how quickly we have all responded to change.

Mansion House Survey Feedback

Nick Ter Averst, Chairman Functions Committee, provides us with a summary of the Survey feedback. Many positives about this excellent event for the Needlemakers annual banquet - although there are some etiquette reminders!

State of the Livery Companies during Lockdown

On a quiet afternoon, one of the Clerks posted a message in the fellowship WhatsApp group for a bit of light entertainment with a few puns about a couple of companies. See how creative the Clerks can be
